Need Diaz Again

American mining engineers coming back from Mexico are disgusted, and they are willing to express their disgust in no uncertain terms. A prominent mining engineer who returned from Sonora this week asserts that outside of the main towns in Mexico it is apparent to any impartial observer of the situation that General Diaz' work will have to be done all over again. Americans, he states, are really in a worse condition than ever, due largely to the invitation handed out by the present administration to do what they please to Americans. The engineer says that as a general proposition Americans were always hated in Latin America anyway and now that the inhabitants understand that they can massacre people without a protest, one is obliged to wonder at their moderation.

Those who have discussed the Mexican situation with President Taft recently are fully aware that he is fully cognizant of the seriousness of the Mexican troubles, but he is still acting solely on the idea that any effort at jingoism at this stage might be construed by his political opponents as making political capital. His motives are absolutely sincere. It is generally believed that if the present administration could be made to realize that the public in general should not give a move of this kind a political angle, that he would very soon undertake some definite steps in regard to protecting American enterprises in that republic. It is doubtful if peace will ever be generally restored until a move of this kind is actually attempted. Ample warning ought to be given Americans to be able to leave the country and the steps succeeding this effort ought to be firm, positive and rigidly unequivocal.

Reno Is Threatened

Dame Rumor has it that Reno will make a strong fight in the coming legislature to prevent any change being made in the present divorce law. There appears to be a frame up among the Washoe county politicians to keep the obnoxious law intact, for the republicans did not nominate a candidate for the state senate, while the democratic side of the party has presented W. D. Jones, the father of the time-lock divorce bill that passed the last legislature. Jones is strong for the divorcees, notwithstanding his ability as a lawyer, and from a monetary standpoint can be depended upon to work for the interests of the leeches that infest Reno and live off the divorcees.

Sentiment from various parts of the state is strongly in opposition to the present divorce law and it appears that a change is inevitable. Nye county, Esmeralda, Elko, Lander, Churchill and Douglas counties have spoken in opposition to the Reno industry and it is certain that delegations will be elected who will pledge themselves to eradicate the present disgraceful condition. Ormsby county is occupying a position in the middle of the road, fearing to take a stand on either side as they might antagonize some delegation and lose the state capital. The middle of the road tactics will win no votes and it can be presumed that the guard surrounding the capital will eventually side in with Washoe county for Carson occasionally secures a six-months' resident that adds materially to the population of that city.

When thieves fall out honest men receive their dues appears to be the true state of affairs with regard to the graft exposures in the New York police department.

MANY MEN ARE WILLING TO ACT AS EXECUTIONERS

WARDEN AT STATE PRISON RECEIVES LETTERS ASKING FOR SITUATION

That there are a number of men in the United States who are willing to take a human life for a few dollars' pay has been demonstrated since Warden Cowing of the Nevada penitentiary announced that he needed men to shoot Andrea Mirkovich, the Austrian who had chosen death by shooting for the murder of John Gregovich of Tonopah, says the Gazette. He has received over one hundred communications from men wanting to shoot Mirkovich for a small sum and each writer talks of the shooting of this human being as if he were nothing more than a jack-rabbit or a rattlesnake. Some even go so far as to tell of their ability in taking human life and to boast of their accuracy in shooting.

Not only is Warden Cowing receiving many letters from men wanting this job of sniping the life of a man, but Sheriff Ferrel is also receiving letters. The readers of the papers do not always read correctly and therefore some have imbibed with the mistaken idea that Sheriff Ferrel is to have charge of the shooting of Mirkovich. One letter received by the sheriff reads as follows:

"Erie, Pa., Aug. 15, 1912.
"Sheriff Ferrel, Reno, Nev.
"Dear Sir: I seen in a paper that you wanted some one to come to Reno and shoot a prisoner. What is there in it and when does the shooting have to be done. Hoping to hear from you by return mail, I am
"Yours respectfully,
"J. C. LEWIS.
"1232 State Street, Erie, Pa."
The sheriff states that he intends to answer this letter and tell Lewis that the price will be 92 1/2 cents and that he is to pay his own expenses to Reno and return.
